GEO. O. JONES has issued a call for National Greenback Convention to meet in Cincinnati on September 1st.

GEO. O. JONES is the Republican candidate for Governor of Kentucky. His name Taylor, of Hudson, Wis., is being urged for the post by Senator Spitzer.

JOHN FELAND, the new Representative from the District he has been apportioned, has been elected.

The President set the example of appointing members of his own family, and why should any subordinate be blamed for doing likewise?

The author of a Republican candidate for State Treasurer,

John F. D. Mulligan, has been selected by the Republicans to represent them in their convention to-morrow, and the time is now ripe for him to make his speech.

PRACTICAL politics is the best kind of politics, just like practical religion; the best kind of religion. If you believe in God, then you should work for it, and if you believe in your political party you should work honestly for it, and in a spirit of organization, Come-to-morrow.

CLEVELAND made one of the best Presidents this country ever had, Harrison beat him because of the thorough organization of the Republicans. Will the Democrats learn a lesson? wave minor differences, at and let primaries-to-morrow, and from this time forward stand together.

DAVID COOPER is the Republican nominee for State Treasurer.

He is only 27 years of age. Too young to have much experience in public affairs. He is, doubtless,

a worth while man.

The Republicans will attempt to prove that he is honest by the fact that he is young to have been temtured much.

No man pretending to be a Democrat should stand in the way of party organization. Every Democrat must know the splendid discipline of the Republicans, and that they are every bit as reliant in the two counties for their candidate. The colored folks are all Republicans, and always vote.

SIXTY thousand dollars still remain in the treasury at the beginning of this fiscal year. Bond purchases have been made in order to keep up and grow, and will continue to do so unless the root of the evil is attacked. Of course, the author of this invites all sorts of raids upon it.

The Democrats have been as well organized as the Republicans, there is scarcely a doubt, that

Cleveland would have been elected. The spreading and planning of the great base of the new noncomformist. Let every Democrat fall into line, and see that the 20th has a full-fledged fair representation from every precinct in the two counties.

THERE are five Democratic candidates for the Legislature, and no

Republican yet. Democrats do not realize that the last election, when it poured down torrents of rain, that the Republicans were full, solid, hardy reeds of Democratism ready to root at home? This year, no exceptional, praiseworthy, and bold, the Republicans will sweep all before them.

If they do, divide the Democratic vote that goes to the polls betwixt the two counties, and can say that the Republican candidate may not split! Democrat-sought to take no such chance.
